

Compound Sentence Match

Sentence Structures

A compound sentence is
two independent clauses
joined using a conjunction.

simple sentence
subject and verb
completed thought

+

simple sentence
subject and verb
completed thought

1. Draw lines to join the simple sentences. The first one has been done.

Simple sentences	Simple sentences
The dog barked loudly.	He ordered a drink.
Samuel pushed his bike.	His tyre was flat.
The man set his alarm.	The family woke up.
The girls shared stories until late.	He had to get up early.
James listened carefully.	They were tired in the morning.
Gavin ordered pizza.	He still couldn't understand.

2. Create compound sentences by choosing conjunctions from the box below to join the sentence pairs above.

Conjunctions
for	and	but	so
nor	or		yet

---

---

---

---

---

---

Compound Sentence Match Answers

Sentence Structures

A compound sentence is
two independent clauses
joined using a conjunction.

simple sentence
subject and verb
completed thought

simple sentence
subject and verb
completed thought

1. Draw lines to join the simple sentences. The first one has been done.

Simple sentences		Simple sentences
The dog barked loudly.		He ordered a drink.
Samuel pushed his bike.		His tyre was flat.
The man set his alarm.		The family woke up.
The girls shared stories until late.		He had to get up early.
James listened carefully.		They were tired in the morning.
Gavin ordered pizza.		He still couldn't understand.

2. Create compound sentences by choosing conjunctions from the box below to join the sentence pairs above.

Conjunctions
for		and		but	so
nor			or		yet

Answers will vary