

Complete Sentences

A sentence must express a complete thought.

Dan likes to sing.
(complete thought)

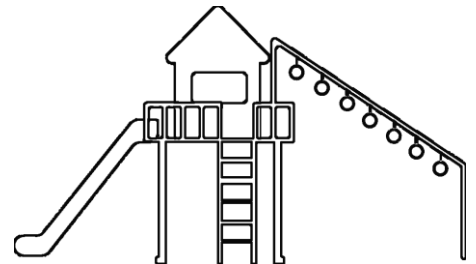

Likes to sing.
(not a complete thought)

Tick the complete sentences.

Cross the incomplete sentences.

1. The waves were huge.
2. Was very happy.
3. Crashed against the rocks.
4. The dog jumped up and down.
5. The beautiful dancer.
6. Jane needed to go to the doctor.
7. He will be late.
8. When I am sad.
9. Angus and Julia went to the playground.
10. The movie we were going to watch.

Choose three of the incomplete thoughts.

Turn them into complete sentences and write them below.

<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

Complete Sentences Answers

A sentence must express a complete thought.

Dan likes to sing.

(complete thought)

Tick the complete sentences.

Cross the incomplete sentences.

1. The waves were huge.

2. Was happy.

3. Crashed against the rocks.

4. The dog jumped up and down.

5. The beautiful dancer.

6. Jane needed to go to the doctor.

7. He will be late.

8. When I am sad.

9. Angus and Julia went to the playground.

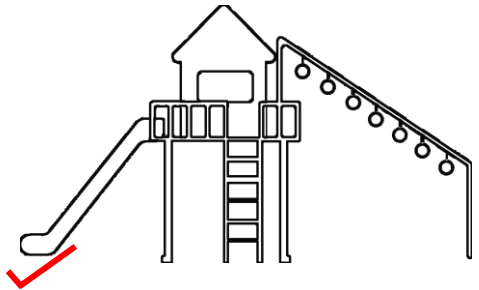

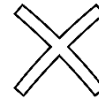

10. The movie we were going to watch.

Likes to sing.

(not a complete thought)

Choose three of the incomplete thoughts.

Turn them into complete sentences and write them below.

<hr/> <hr/> <hr/> <hr/>

