

Full Stops & Question Marks

Question marks are used to mark the end of a question.

Full stops mark the end of statements.

The following sentences are missing either a full stop or a question mark.
Add the correct punctuation.

1. Why is Pat crying
2. Mum and dad are going out to dinner
3. The end of the movie was very sad
4. Our new dog's name is Bingo
5. When are you going leaving for school
6. Who is in your basketball team
7. The cat chased the birds out of the yard
8. Let's go for a walk on the beach
9. Do you like pancakes
10. How am I going to get all my homework done

Write a question and write a statement. Remember to use the correct punctuation.

•

---

?

---

Full Stops & Question Marks-Answers

Question marks are used to mark the end of a question.

Full stops mark the end of statements.

The following sentences are missing either a full stop or a question mark.
Add the correct punctuation.

1. Why is Pat crying?
2. Mum and dad are going out to dinner.
3. The end of the movie was very sad.
4. Our new dog's name is Bingo.
5. When are you going leaving for school?
6. Who is in your basketball team?
7. The cat chased the birds out of the yard.
8. Let's go for a walk on the beach.
9. Do you like pancakes?
10. How am I going to get all my homework done?

Write a question and write a statement. Remember to use the correct punctuation.

•

---

?

---