

Plural Possessive Nouns

To show possession for plural nouns, the apostrophe goes after the s

For example: The swimmers' coach.

If plural noun doesn't end in s, the apostrophe goes before.

For example: The children's toys.

The following sentences show plural noun possession, but are missing punctuation.

1. The dogs' play area is too small. Dogs owns play area
2. The kids__ play room needs a clean. own
3. The giraffe__ habitat is being destroyed. own
4. The nurse__ desk is very busy. own
5. The worker__ lunch time is 30 minutes. own
6. The doctor__ meetings were always long. own
7. Elephant__ tusks can be dangerous. own
8. The teacher__ car park was full. own
9. The teacher__ rooms were cleaned. own
10. The men__ room was busy. own

Write sentences to match the following:

builders own tools

children own toys

Plural Possessive Nouns- Answers

To show possession for plural nouns, the apostrophe goes after the s

For example: The swimmers' coach.

If plural noun doesn't end in s, the apostrophe goes before.

For example: The children's toys.

The following sentences show plural noun possession, but are missing punctuation.

1. The dogs' play area is too small. Dogs own's play area
2. The kids' play room needs a clean. own
3. The giraffes' habitat is being destroyed. own
4. The nurses' desk is very busy. own
5. The workers' lunch time is 30 minutes. own
6. The doctors' meetings were always long. own
7. Elephants' tusks can be dangerous. own
8. The teachers' car park was full. own
9. The teachers' rooms were cleaned. own
10. The men's room was busy. own

Write sentences to match the following:

builders own tools

children own toys
