

Pronouns– take the place of a noun.

For example: Karl likes to sing but he is not good at it.

Common subject pronouns

you I they we she he

Common predicate pronouns

you me them us her him

Rewrite on the line below. Change the underlined noun/s to a pronoun.

1. James and Lindsey are late for the movie.

2. Damien bought Kate a bunch of flowers.

3. I told Molly to stop but Molly kept running.

4. Can you see Anne, Julie and Brian?

5. I am talking to Uncle Peter.

6. Brad and I are friends.

7. Lyn asked Evie to the movies.

Pronouns– take the place of a noun. Answers

For example: Karl likes to sing but he is not good at it.

Common subject pronouns

you I they we she he

Common predicate pronouns

you me them us her him

Rewrite on the line below. Change the underlined noun/s to a pronoun.

1. James and Lindsey are late for the movie.

They are late for the movie.

2. Damien bought Kate a bunch of flowers.

He bought Kate a bunch of flowers.

3. I told Molly to stop but Molly kept running.

I told Molly to stop but she kept running.

4. Can you see Anne, Julie and Brian?

Can you see them?

5. I am talking to Uncle Peter.

I am talking to him.

6. Brad and I are friends.

We are friends.

7. Lyn asked Evie to the movies.

Lyn asked her to the movies.