Past, Present and Future Verbs

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Past</th>
<th>Present</th>
<th>Future</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The dog barked at the runner.</td>
<td>The dog barks at the runner.</td>
<td>The dog will bark at the runner.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Read each sentence and work out whether the verb is past tense, present tense or past tense. Write your answer on the line beside.

1. Nate will run a race tomorrow. ________________________________
2. The cat jumped over the back fence. ___________________________
3. The snow falls over the city. _________________________________
4. The basket ball bounces down the road. _________________________
5. The boys watched a movie. _________________________________
6. If it rains again tomorrow, the pool will flood. _______________
7. The dog chased the ball. _________________________________
8. Mr Frill will close the door. _______________________________

Change past tense into present tense.

The donkey pulled the cart. The donkey pulls the cart.
She grabbed the ball.
Mum cooked dinner.
The water bottle dropped.

Change present tense into future tense.

The girl runs to school.
James orders his lunch.
The light switches on.

Change future tense into past tense.

George will cook dinner.
The footballer will kick the ball.
The chef will stir the stew.
Past, Present and Future Verbs Answers

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Past</th>
<th>Present</th>
<th>Future</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The dog barked at the runner.</td>
<td>The dog barks at the runner.</td>
<td>The dog will bark at the runner.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Read each sentence and work out whether the verb is past tense, present tense or past tense. Write your answer on the line beside.

1. Nate will run a race tomorrow.
2. The cat jumped over the back fence.
3. The snow falls over the city.
4. The basket ball bounces down the road.
5. The boys watched a movie.
6. If it rains again tomorrow, the pool will flood.
7. The dog chased the ball.
8. Mr Frill will close the door.

Change past tense into present tense.

The donkey pulled the cart.
She grabbed the ball.
Mum cooked dinner.
The water bottle dropped.

The donkey pulls the cart.
She grabs the ball.
Mum cooks dinner.
The water bottle drops.

Change present tense into future tense.

The girl runs to school.
James orders his lunch.
The light switches on.

The girl will run to school.
James will order his lunch.
The light will switch on.

Change future tense into past tense.

George will cook dinner.
The footballer will kick the ball.
The chef will stir the stew.

George cooked dinner.
The footballer kicked the ball.
The chef stirred the stew.