

Summarising

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

_____ (Title)

Some people believe homework is good because it helps children. These people think that homework teaches children to be responsible for their learning. They believe that extra practice will help children become smarter.

Other people believe that homework is a waste of time. Children, they say, should spend their time away from school playing with family and friends.

2. What is the main idea of this text?

---

---

3. Write an appropriate title on the line above the text.

Summarising Answers

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

Answers Will Vary (Title)

Some people believe homework is good because it helps children. These people think that homework teaches children to be responsible for their learning. They believe that extra practice will help children become smarter.

Other people believe that homework is a waste of time. Children, they say, should spend their time away from school playing with family and friends.

2. What is the main idea of this text? (Note: answers will vary)

People have different opinions on whether homework is helpful or not for children.

3. Write an appropriate title on the line above the text.