

Summarising

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

_____ (Title)

Dogs make wonderful pets. They are fun, happy, playful and loving. People sometimes forget, however, that owning a dog is a big responsibility. Owners need to feed, care for and clean up after their dog.

They must make sure their pet gets enough exercise. Dogs also need to be taken to the vet regularly to make sure they are healthy and to get treatment to stop ticks, fleas and worms from causing health problems. Owners also have a responsibility to train their pet so it knows how to behave around people. Dogs are beautiful animals and they deserve responsible owners who will look after them properly.

2. What is the main idea of this text?

3. Write an appropriate title on the line above the text.

Summarising Answers

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

Answers will vary (Title)

Dogs make wonderful pets. They are fun, happy, playful and loving. People sometimes forget, however, that owning a dog is a big responsibility. Owners need to feed, care for and clean up after their dog.

They must make sure their pet gets enough exercise. Dogs also need to be taken to the vet regularly to make sure they are healthy and to get treatment to stop ticks, fleas and worms from causing health problems. Owners also have a responsibility to train their pet so it knows how to behave around people. Dogs are beautiful animals and they deserve responsible owners who will look after them properly.

2. What is the main idea of this text? (Note: answers will vary)

Owning a dog is a big responsibility.

3. Write an appropriate title on the line above the text.