

First Fleet: Life in England

Many events occurred in England in the during the late 1700s that led to the First Fleet setting sail.

Draw a picture representing each event.

1. During the industrial revolution many new machines were invented. People had to move to towns and cities.

2. Many people had to move into the city for work.

4. Many people were poor and had to steal to survive.

2. Cities became overcrowded and many people were without work.

5. Prisons and hulks became overcrowded.

6. Government sent their convicts to Australia.

Fast Finishers: Consider how each even caused the following event.