

Apostrophes are used for...

Contractions

she + is

The letters left out are replaced with an apostrophe.

she's

&

Possessive Nouns

An apostrophe also shows possession.

dog's bed

dogs' bed

Underline the word with an apostrophe in each sentence.
Circle to show whether the word is a contraction or a possessive noun.

1. "What's going on here?" asked dad. contraction possessive
2. The shops won't be open for long. contraction possessive
3. The rain fell on Tim's umbrella. contraction possessive
4. The surfers were told they couldn't go in the water. contraction possessive
5. Harry's favourite show was on TV. contraction possessive
6. Water got into the girl's backpack. contraction possessive
7. It'll be too late if we don't leave now. contraction possessive
8. The teachers' meeting started late. contraction possessive
9. Fran's parents were travelling to India. contraction possessive
10. The dog's getting hungry. contraction possessive

Apostrophes are used for... Answers

Contractions

she + is

The letters left out are replaced with an apostrophe.

she's

&

Possessive Nouns

An apostrophe also shows possession.

dog's bed

dogs' bed

Underline the word with an apostrophe in each sentence.
Circle to show whether the word is a contraction or a possessive noun.

1. "What's going on here?" asked dad.

contraction possessive

2. The shops won't be open for long.

contraction possessive

3. The rain fell on Tim's umbrella.

contraction possessive

4. The surfers were told they couldn't go in the water.

contraction possessive

5. Harry's favourite show was on TV.

contraction possessive

6. Water got into the girl's backpack.

contraction possessive

7. It'll be too late if we don't leave now.

contraction possessive

8. The teachers' meeting started late.

contraction possessive

9. Fran's parents were travelling to India.

contraction possessive

10. The dog's getting hungry.

contraction possessive