

Capitalisation

Capital letters are needed for:

The first letter of a sentence

Proper nouns
(names of people, specific places, products, etc.)

The pronoun 'I'

Days, months, holidays

Rewrite each sentence, adding in capital letters where they are needed.

1. some children dressed up in a spiderman costume for halloween.

2. After class on monday, mrs parker marked the tests.

3. "Can i please have a slice of cake?" jenny asked.

4. A new park on willow street was opened by mayor williams.

5. the final surprise was a visit to disney land in june.

6. the new video game console, the gamestation plus has sold out across japan.

7. danny and samantha watched the surfers at bells beach.

8. my name is rick and i work for microsoft.

Capitalisation Answers

Capital letters are needed for:

The first letter of a sentence

Proper nouns
(names of people, specific places, products, etc.)

The pronoun 'I'

Days, months, holidays

Rewrite each sentence, adding in capital letters where they are needed.

1. some children dressed up in a spiderman costume for halloween.

Some children dressed up in a Spiderman costume for Halloween.

2. After class on monday, mrs parker marked the tests.

After class on Monday, Mrs Parker marked the tests.

3. "Can i please have a slice of cake?" jenny asked.

"Can I please have a slice of cake?" Jenny asked.

4. A new park on willow street was opened by mayor williams.

A new park on Willow Street was opened by Mayor Williams.

5. the final surprise was a visit to disney land in june.

The final surprise was a visit to Disney Land in June.

6. the new video game console, the gamestation plus has sold out across japan.

The new video game console, the Gamestation plus has sold out across Japan.

7. danny and samantha watched the surfers at bells beach.

Danny and Samantha watched the surfers at Bells Beach.

8. my name is rick and i work for microsoft.

My name is Rick and I work for Microsoft.