

Capitals for Proper Nouns

Capital letters are needed for all proper nouns.

person's name

name of a specific place

name of a product

months of the year,
days of the week

Rewrite each sentence, adding in capital letters for any proper nouns.

1. The children dressed up for halloween.

2. The teacher read charlotte's web to the class.

3. Mike drove his toyota to the shops in brentwood.

4. A new park opened in the city on thursday.

5. penny had worked at fran's fish house for three years.

6. Tired after a long day, mary sat on the couch to watch the movie, dragon's lair.

7. People drank twice as much pepsi in december as they did in november.

8. The taxi driver drove along palm street and picked up the carey family.

Capitals for Proper Nouns Answers

Capital letters are needed for all proper nouns.

person's name

name of a specific
place

name of a product

months of the year,
days of the week

Rewrite each sentence, adding in capital letters for any proper nouns.

1. The children dressed up for halloween.

The children dressed up for Halloween.

2. The teacher read charlotte's web to the class.

The teacher read Charlotte's Web to the class.

3. Mike drove his toyota to the shops in brentwood.

Mike drove his Toyota to the shops in Brentwood.

4. A new park opened in the city on thursday.

A new park opened in the city on Thursday.

5. penny had worked at fran's fish house for three years.

Penny had worked at Fran's Fish House for three years.

6. Tired after a long day, mary sat on the couch to watch the movie, dragon's lair.

Tired after a long day, Mary sat on the couch to watch the movie, Dragon's Lair.

7. People drank twice as much pepsi in december as they did in november.

People drank twice as much Pepsi in December as they did in November.

8. The taxi driver drove along palm street and picked up the carey family.

The taxi driver drove along Palm Street and picked up the Carey family.