

Comma or Full Stop? 2

A comma tells the reader to take a short pause within a sentence.

I like oranges , but apples are my favourite .

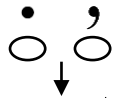

A full stop tells the reader to take a longer pause. It indicates a sentence is complete.

I love apples . They are delicious .

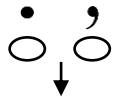

Some sentences are missing a full stop, some a comma and some both!

Shade the bubbles to show the punctuation needed.

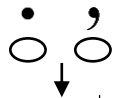

(Remember: if a full stop is needed, so is a capital!)

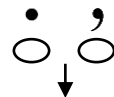

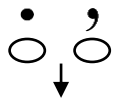

1. Jake wanted to rest it had been a long week.

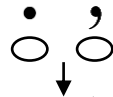

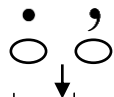

2. Katrina had to leave now or she was going to be late.

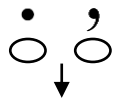

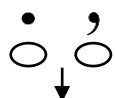

3. "If it starts to rain please shut the windows," said Mum.

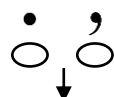

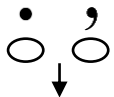

4. Pat had never been to the beach he was nervous would the waves be big?

5. Since it was Friday Lyn was allowed to stay up she would watch a movie.

6. Lions are amazing they are large but so agile.

7. Jamie Benjamin Paula and Mark played handball together.

Comma or Full Stop?

A comma tells the reader to take a short pause within a sentence.

I like oranges , but apples are my favourite .

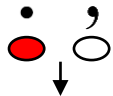

A full stop tells the reader to take a longer pause. It indicates a sentence is complete.

I love apples . They are delicious .

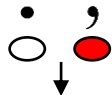

Some sentences are missing a full stop, some a comma and some both!

Shade the bubbles to show the punctuation needed.

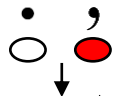

(Remember: if a full stop is needed, so is a capital!)

1. Jake wanted to rest It had been a long week.

2. Katrina had to leave now or she was going to be late.

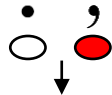

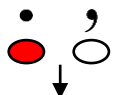

3. "If it starts to rain please shut the windows," said Mum.

4. Pat had never been to the beach He was nervous Would the waves be big?

5. Since it was Friday Lyn was allowed to stay up She would watch a movie.

6. Lions are amazing They are large but so agile.

7. Jamie Benjamin Paula and Mark played handball together.