

Commas

A comma tells the reader to take a short pause. They make our writing easier to follow.

Read the following sentences , adding in commas where they are needed.

1. While walking home I found a set of keys.
2. Red yellow blue and orange icing was used for the cupcakes.
3. It was beginning to rain so the class headed back to the room.
4. Next put the dish in the oven taking care not to burn yourself.
5. Nathan Rachel and Sandra walked to the taxi.
6. The children had a choice of cricket soccer football or netball.
7. Although it was raining the family decided to take the boat out.
8. Jake enjoys neither playing tennis nor watching tennis.
9. If you won't study you can't expect to do well on the text.
10. Farmers often use kelpies a special breed of dog to help herd sheep.
11. Now that I have saved up I can buy a bike.
12. When he won the award everyone cheered.
13. Since it was Friday the children went out for a game.
14. The recipe called for carrots broccoli potatoes and spinach none of which Sam had.

Commas Answers

A comma tells the reader to take a short pause. They make our writing easier to follow.

Read the following sentences , adding in commas where they are needed.

1. While walking home, I found a set of keys.
2. Red, yellow, blue and orange icing was used for the cupcakes.
3. It was beginning to rain, so the class headed back to the room.
4. Next, put the dish in the oven, taking care not to burn yourself.
5. Nathan, Rachel and Sandra walked to the taxi.
6. The children had a choice of cricket, soccer, football or netball.
7. Although it was raining, the family decided to take the boat out.
8. Jake enjoys neither playing tennis, nor watching tennis.
9. If you won't study, you can't expect to do well on the text.
10. Farmers often use kelpies, a special breed of dog, to help herd sheep.
11. Now that I have saved up, I can buy a bike.
12. When he won the award, everyone cheered.
13. Since it was Friday, the children went out for a game.
14. The recipe called for carrots, broccoli, potatoes and spinach, none of which Sam had.