

Commas in Lists 1

Commas are used to separate items in a list. The last two items are separated instead with 'and' or 'or'.

I went shopping and I bought, apples, bananas, yoghurt and grapes.

Commas have not been used in the following sentences.

Rewrite each sentence, using commas to separate list items.

1. The tour group travelled through France and Germany and Spain and Portugal.

---

2. The club had four members: Jackson and Penny and Alex and Linh.

---

3. The children's spelling activity left red and yellow and blue markings on the ground.

---

4. The class had a new teacher on Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday.

---

5. Claire and Will and Jack went on a beach trip together.

---

6. Mum asked if I wanted a sandwich or chicken salad or a bowl of soup.

---

Commas in Lists 1 Answers

Commas are used to separate items in a list. The last two items are separated instead with 'and' or 'or'.

I went shopping and I bought, apples, bananas, yoghurt and grapes.

Commas have not been used in the following sentences.

Rewrite each sentence, using commas to separate list items.

1. The tour group travelled through France and Germany and Spain and Portugal.

The tour group travelled through France, Germany, Spain and Portugal.

2. The club had four members: Jackson and Penny and Alex and Linh.

The club had four members: Jackson, Penny, Alex and Linh.

3. The children's spelling activity left red and yellow and blue markings on the ground.

The children's spelling activity left red, yellow and blue markings on the ground.

4. The class had a new teacher on Monday and Tuesday and Wednesday.

The class had a new teacher on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

5. Claire and Will and Jack went on a beach trip together.

Claire, Will and Jack went on a beach trip together.

6. Mum asked if I wanted a sandwich or chicken salad or a bowl of soup.

Mum asked if I wanted a sandwich, chicken salad or a bowl of soup.