

Speech Marks 2 “ ”

Speech marks or quotation marks are used to show direct speech (what someone is saying).

Direct speech can go at the beginning of the sentence:

“I like pizza,” said May.

Direct speech can go at the end of the sentence:

May said, “I like pizza.”

Rewrite each sentence, adding speech marks in the correct places.

1. Come over here Evie called to her friend.

2. Molly said I love to feed the animals.

3. The clown is funny laughed Tim.

4. Fran said let's go out for dinner.

5. I love your new shirt said Eric.

6. Hannah asked where did you put my book?

7. Can you help me please? asked Sarah.

Speech Marks Answers

Speech marks or quotation marks are used to show direct speech (what someone is saying).

Direct speech can go at the beginning of the sentence:

“I like pizza,” said May.

Direct speech can go at the end of the sentence:

May said, “I like pizza.”

Rewrite each sentence, adding speech marks in the correct places.

1. “ Come over here, ” Evie called to her friend.
2. Molly said, “ I love to feed the animals. ”
3. “ The clown is funny laughed Tim. ”
4. Fran said, “ Let’s go out for dinner. ”
5. “ I love your new shirt, ” said Eric.
6. Hanna asked, “ Where did you put my book. ”
7. “ Can you help me please? ” asked Sarah.