

Persuasive Writing Prompt Cards

Set 1

Persuasive Writing Prompt

Card 1

“Students should get to choose their teachers.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuasive Writing Prompt

Card 2

“Pets should be allowed in schools.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your family to take you on a holiday.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your teacher to throw a class party.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

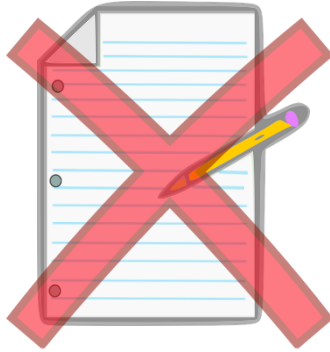

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“Homework should be banned.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“Dogs are the best pets.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your friend to have a movie night at their place.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

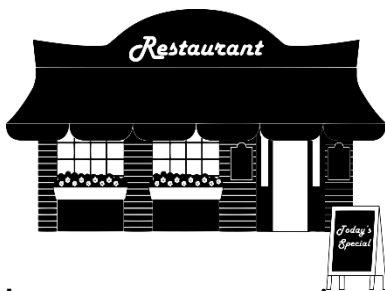

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your parents to take you out for dinner tonight.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“Beach holidays are the best holidays.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“Books are better than movies.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your teacher to let you skip a test.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your parents to buy you a new phone.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

"Sport should be compulsory for children."

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

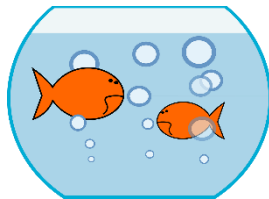

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

"All families should own a pet."

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.
Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your friend to help you finish your homework.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

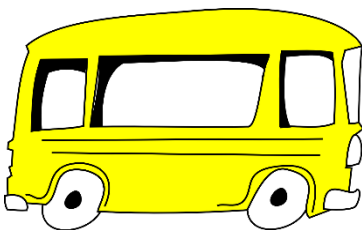

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your teacher to take the class on a trip.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“All children should have to do chores to earn pocket money.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.

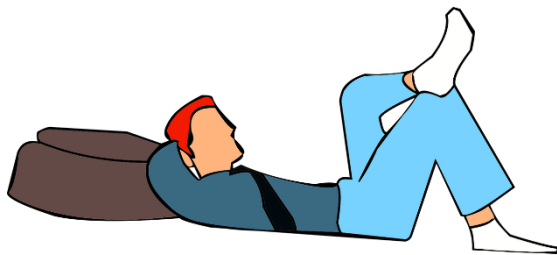

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

“Weekends should be three days long.”

Do you agree? Do you disagree?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons for your opinion.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your parents or siblings to help you clean your room.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence

Persuade your parents to let you stay up late.

How can you convince them?

Think of 3 or 4 good reasons.

Use persuasive devices to make your argument more convincing.

Copyright © www.easyteaching.net

Persuasive Devices

- Adjectives
- Alliteration
- Emotive language
- Hyperbole
- Modal verbs
- Repetition
- Rhetorical Questions
- Use evidence