

Using Modal Verbs 1

Modality refers to how likely something is to happen. Modal verbs are used to adjust the level of certainty of an event.

Words with low modality indicate a low level of certainty of an event occurring.

Words with high modality indicate a high level of certainty of an event occurring.

Low

may might mightn't
could

Medium

will won't should shouldn't
can would

High

must mustn't
ought to shall has to Find and circle the modal verb in each sentence.

Rewrite each sentence to be more persuasive by choosing a higher modality verb.

1. Building a new pool may be good for the town.

2. You could finish your homework by Friday.

3. A rescue dog might make a great family pet.

4. If we don't save money now, we mightn't have enough for the future.

5. We shouldn't forget to look after our brave heroes.

Write a sentence using each of the following modal verbs.

(would) _____

(must) _____

(won't) _____