

Apostrophes

Apostrophes for Contractions

she + is → she's you + are → you're

Apostrophes for Possessive Nouns

Colour the correct bubbles to show where the apostrophe belongs.
 Circle to show whether the apostrophe is for a contraction or a possessive noun.

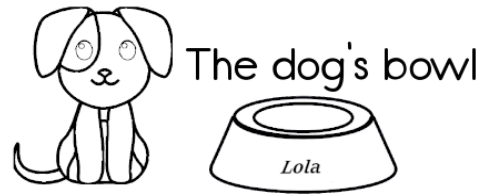

1. The mans dogs were covered in mud. contraction possessive
2. The teacher found lollies in the girls bag. contraction possessive
3. This is the way the boys went, isnt it? contraction possessive
4. Wendys parents were going to the movies. contraction possessive
5. "Cant you let us stay a little longer?" asked Cas. contraction possessive
6. The Smiths went to dinner in the citys newest restaurant. contraction possessive
7. The dogs from next door were digging in Marys backyard. contraction possessive
8. The teachers staffroom was filled with tables and chairs. contraction possessive
9. The cats werent happy that the family went on holidays. contraction possessive

Apostrophes Answers

Apostrophes for Contractions

she + is → she's
 you + are → you're

Apostrophes for Possessive Nouns

Colour the correct bubbles to show where the apostrophe belongs.

Circle to show whether the apostrophe is for a contraction or a possessive noun.

- The mans dogs were covered in mud.

contraction possessive
- The teacher found lollies in the girls bag.

contraction possessive
- This is the way the boys went, isnt it?

contraction possessive
- Wendys parents were going to the movies.

contraction possessive
- "Cant you let us stay a little longer?" asked Cas.

contraction possessive
- The Smiths went to dinner in the citys newest restaurant.

contraction possessive
- The dogs from next door were digging in Marys backyard.

contraction possessive
- The teachers staffroom was filled with tables and chairs.

contraction possessive
- The cats werent happy that the family went on holidays.

contraction possessive