

Statement, Question or Exclamation?

Question Marks
mark the end of a question

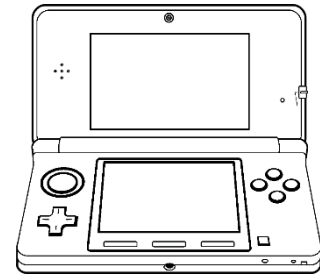

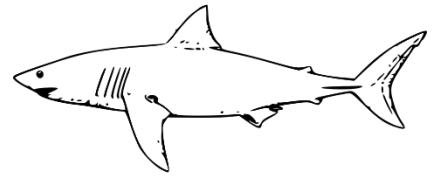

Exclamation Marks
mark the end of sentences that
show strong feelings

Full Stops
mark the end of all other
sentences (statements)

What's missing: a full stop, a question mark or an exclamation mark?
Add the correct punctuation.

1. The roof was slippery after the rain
2. I just saw a shark
3. Where did you go last night
4. This is my friend, Rick
5. Have you played the new game
6. I won the lottery
7. My mum sometimes dyes her hair
8. That's unbelievable
9. My watch stopped working after I wore it in the water
10. When should we leave for the party

Write three sentences, each using a different ending marker.

o

Statement, Question or Exclamation? Answers

Question Marks
mark the end of a question

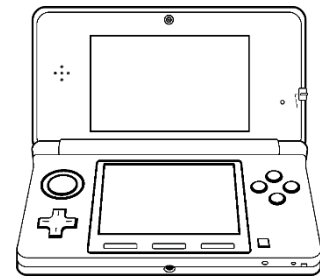

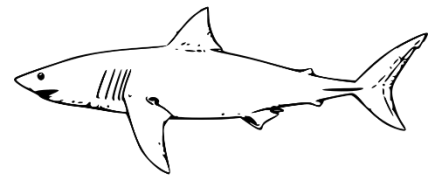

Exclamation Marks
mark the end of sentences that
show strong feelings

Full Stops
mark the end of all other
sentences (statements)

What's missing: a full stop, a question mark or an exclamation mark?
Add the correct punctuation.

1. The roof was slippery after the rain.
2. I just saw a shark!
3. Where did you go last night?
4. This is my friend, Rick.
5. Have you played the new game?
6. I won the lottery!
7. My mum sometimes dyes her hair.
8. That's unbelievable!
9. My watch stopped working after I wore it in the water.
10. When should we leave for the party?

Write three sentences, each using a different ending marker.

o

