

Homophones

Homophones are words with the same pronunciation but different meanings.

FLOUR

For example:

and

FLOWER

Choose the correct homophones below to complete the sentences.

main

mane

rows

rose

knot

not weak

week

eight ate

1. After two days without food, the men were beginning to feel _____.
2. "You will _____ be allowed in without shoes," said Mum.
3. The children were seated in _____ for the assembly.
4. In some countries, the _____ meal of the day is eaten for lunch.
5. The lion's mother grabbed his _____ with her teeth.
6. Lenny bought a red _____ for his wife.
7. Toby hungrily _____ his lunch.
8. After a busy _____, the family sat down to watch a movie together.
9. The teacher tried to get the _____ out of the girl's shoelace.
10. The postman was scared of the dog at number _____ Smith Street.

Homophones Answers

Homophones are words with the same pronunciation but different meanings.

FLOUR

For example:

and

FLOWER

Choose the correct homophones below to complete the sentences.

	main	mane	rows	rose
	knot	not	weak	week
		eight	ate

1. After two days without food, the men were beginning to feel weak.
2. "You will not be allowed in without shoes," said Mum.
3. The children were seated in rows for the assembly.
4. In some countries, the main meal of the day is eaten for lunch.
5. The lion's mother grabbed his mane with her teeth.
6. Lenny bought a red rose for his wife.
7. Toby hungrily ate his lunch.
8. After a busy week, the family sat down to watch a movie together.
9. The teacher tried to get the knot out of the girl's shoelace.
10. The postman was scared of the dog at number eight Smith Street.