Similes

Figurative Language

Similes make a comparison between two different things, normally using the words 'like' or 'as'. For example:

It's as cold as a snowman's belly

This simile compares the temperature to a snowman's belly.

Create your own similes using 'like' or 'as'.

1. Compare yourself to something hungry.

   _____

2. Compare a shopkeeper to something grumpy.

   _____

3. Compare a school bag to something heavy.

   _____

4. Compare your feet to something cold.

   _____

5. Compare a maths lesson to something long.

   _____

6. Compare the water to something smooth.

   _____

7. Compare Bruce to something strong.

   _____

8. Compare the grandmother to something sweet.

   _____