

Writing in the Passive Voice

Present Simple

Active Voice	Passive Voice
The subject of the sentence does the action Tim hits the ball on the roof. subject	The subject of the sentence receives the action. The ball is hit on the roof by Tim. subject

The following present simple sentences are written in active voice.

Rewrite each sentence in passive voice.

Eg. My new neighbour trims the hedges.

_____ The hedges are trimmed by my new neighbour. _____

1. Jim cleans the spiderwebs.

2. The doctor treats the man.

3. My friend finds the solution.

4. Jimmy wins the race.

5. Maria writes a new song.

6. The oven causes this smell.

7. Someone in the stadium takes a great catch.

8. Jenny catches the largest fish of the day.

9. One of my friends breaks the fence.

10. Lions surround a buffalo.

Writing in the Passive Voice Answers

Present Simple

Active Voice	Passive Voice
The subject of the sentence does the action	The subject of the sentence receives the action.
Tim hits the ball on the roof. subject	The ball is hit on the roof by Tim. subject

The following present simple sentences are written in active voice.
Rewrite each sentence in passive voice.

Eg. My new neighbour trims the hedges.

The hedges are trimmed by my new neighbour.

1. Jim cleans the spiderwebs.

The spiderwebs are cleaned by Jim.

2. The doctor treats the man.

The man is treated by the doctor.

3. My friend finds the solution.

The solution is found by my friend.

4. Jimmy wins the race.

The race is won by Jimmy.

5. Maria writes a new song.

A new song is written by Maria.

6. The oven causes this smell.

This smell is caused by the oven.

7. Someone in the stadium takes a great catch.

A great catch is taken by someone in the stadium.

8. Jenny catches the largest fish of the day.

The largest fish of the day is caught by Jenny.

9. One of my friends breaks the fence.

The fence is broken by one of my friends.

10. Lions surround a buffalo.

A buffalo is surrounded by lions.