

Poetic Devices

Poetic devices are tools writers use. They allow writers to create mood, meaning and rhythm. Poetic devices make poems fun and memorable!

Match up each poetic device to its example.

Simile A comparison between two different things, normally using 'like' or 'as'.	Onomatopoeia Words that imitate sounds.
Metaphor A comparison between two different things, often using 'is' or 'was'.	Alliteration Words beginning with the same sound placed close together to emphasise a point.
Hyperbole Language that exaggerates.	Personification Human characteristics given to things that are not human.
Rhyme The repetition of similar sounds in the end of words.	Rhythm The beat and pace of a poem.
The cat craved cuddles.	She could run so fast the wind couldn't catch her.
Nathalie sang like an angel.	Her room was a prison. Her father was the warden.
Crash! The first branch hit the roof and tumbled off.	Kate jumped up in the air, A spider in her hair!
SNA-ils CLIM-bing WIN-dows SNA-ils CLIM-bing STAIRS.	The sky wept as the sun was waking.

Poetic Devices Answers

Poetic devices are tools writers use. They allow writers to create mood, meaning and rhythm. Poetic devices make poems fun and memorable!

Match up each poetic device to its example.

Simile A comparison between two different things, normally using 'like' or 'as'. Nathalie sang like an angel.	Personification Human characteristics given to things that are not human. The sky wept as the sun was waking.
Rhyme The repetition of similar sounds in the end of words. Kate jumped up in the air, A spider in her hair!	Onomatopoeia Words that imitate sounds. Crash! The first branch hit the roof and tumbled off.
Metaphor A comparison between two different things, often using 'is' or 'was'. Her room was a prison. Her father was the warden.	Alliteration Words beginning with the same sound placed close together to emphasise a point. The cat craved cuddles.
Rhythm The beat and pace of a poem. SNA-ils CLIM-bing WIN-dows SNA-ils CLIM-bing STAIRS.	Hyperbole Language that exaggerates. She could run so fast the wind couldn't catch her.