

Similes

My Family

My mum is as clever as an encyclopaedia,
She knows all topics, from A to Z.

My dad is as funny as a clown,
His silly jokes always make me laugh.

My brother sings like a sick whale,
And not just in the shower.

My sister is as clumsy as a baby giraffe,
She is always tripping and falling.

It can be like living in a zoo,
Crazy, but it's perfect for me.

1. Highlight all similes you can find in the poem.

2. For each simile, show what two things are being compared.

For example: dad → clown

_____ → _____

_____ → _____

3. Draw a picture to match one of the similes.

4. Write a simile to match each person in your family!

Remember to use the words 'like' or 'as'

Challenge: Write your own simile poem!
