

Singular Possessive Nouns

A possessive noun is noun that possesses/owns/has something.

the girl's ball

An apostrophe is added before the s.

Rewrite each sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example: The tyre of my car is flat. → My car's tyre is flat.

1. I can see the house of my friend.

2. The tail of my dog is knocks things over.

3. The lunchbox of Grace is blue.

4. The net of the fisherman is caught on the rocks.

5. The skin of a frog can be slimy.

6. The teacher of Mark is Mr Sims.

7. The shirt of the boy was ripped playing football.

8. The light of the fridge is broken.

Singular Possessive Nouns Answers

A possessive noun is noun that possesses/owns/has something.

the girl's ball

An apostrophe is added before the s.

Rewrite each sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example: The tyre of my car is flat.

My car's tyre is flat.

1. I can see the house of my friend.

I can see my friend's house.

2. The tail of my dog is knocks things over.

My dog's tail knocks things over.

3. The lunchbox of Grace is blue.

Grace's lunchbox is blue.

4. The net of the fisherman is caught on the rocks.

The fisherman's net is caught on the rocks.

5. The skin of a frog can be slimy.

A frog's skin can be slimy.

6. The teacher of Mark is Mr Sims.

Mark's teacher is Mr Sims.

7. The shirt of the boy was ripped playing football.

The boy's shirt was ripped playing football.

8. The light of the fridge is broken.

The fridge's light is broken.