

What's the Main Idea?

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

The water lapped gently at Clare's feet as she lay peacefully on the beach. The fresh air filled her lungs as she stared at the deep blue sky.

Clare watched a seagull glide overhead. It landed softly on the still blue water, causing a small ripple. The beach was hers; there was not a single person around for miles. Clare stretched out lazily and smiled as she thought of her friends who, at this moment, would be sitting at their desks and hard at work.

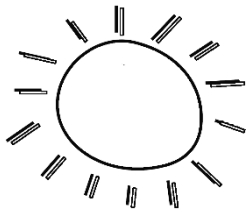

2. What is the main idea of this text?

3. Give the passage an appropriate title.

What's the Main Idea? Answers

1. Read the text to work out the main idea.

Beach Holiday (Answers will vary) (Title)

The water lapped gently at Clare's feet as she lay peacefully on the beach. The fresh air filled her lungs as she stared at the deep blue sky. Clare watched a seagull glide overhead. It landed softly on the still blue water, causing a small ripple. The beach was hers; there was not a single person around for miles. Clare stretched out lazily and smiled as she thought of her friends who, at this moment, would be sitting at their desks and hard at work.

2. What is the main idea of this text?

Clare was relaxed at a beach all to herself.

3. Give the passage an appropriate title.