

Subject-Verb Agreement

The verb of a sentence must agree with the subject of a sentence in number.

The bird eats.
Subject is singular.

The birds eat.
Subject is plural.

Choose the verb that agrees with the subject.

Verb

The teachers _____ the work.

(marks, mark)

The dog _____ at the postwoman.

(growls, growl)

The clothes _____ wet.

(feels, feel)

My dogs _____ scared of thunder.

(is, are)

The flower _____ to wilt.

(start, starts)

The children _____ to the movies.

(goes, go)

Mark _____ a party to go to tomorrow.

(has, have)

The two friends _____ on the fort.

(plays, play)

Ben _____ footsteps on the stairs.

(hear, hears)

Our friend _____ late again.

(is, are)

Subject-Verb Agreement Answers

The verb of a sentence must agree with the subject of a sentence in number.

The bird eats.
Subject is singular.

The birds eat.
Subject is plural.

Choose the verb that agrees with the subject.

Verb

The teachers _____ the work.

(marks)

The dog _____ at the postwoman.

(growls)

The clothes _____ wet.

(feel)

My dogs _____ scared of thunder.

(is)

The flower _____ to wilt.

(starts)

The children _____ to the movies.

(go)

Mark _____ a party to go to tomorrow.

(has)

The two friends _____ on the fort.

(play)

Ben _____ footsteps on the stairs.

(hears)

Our friend _____ late again.

(is)