

Fruit provides us with vitamins, minerals and fibre. These are things that our bodies need to stay healthy.

Different types of fruit help our bodies in different ways. Eating a variety of different colour fruits is a good way to make sure we are getting the benefits that different fruits offer.

By the age of 9, children should be eating 2 pieces of fruit every day.

