Living, Non-Living & Once-Living

Living things grow, move and reproduce. They need air, water and food.

Non-living things do not need air, water or food. They cannot move by themselves. They do not reproduce.

Once-living things used to be alive, but aren't anymore.

| Once-living things used to be alive, but aren't anymore. | | |
|--|-------------------|-------------|
| Living | Non-Living | Once-Living |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | | |

rft

F,

٨

F-d

1