

Non-Standard Partitioning

4-Digit Numbers

Partition 4,267 into different forms.

4,267

thousands	hundreds	tens	ones

 	thousands	 	hundreds	 	tens	 	ones
-------------	------------------	-------------	-----------------	-------------	-------------	-------------	-------------

 + + + =

 	thousands	 	hundreds	 	 	ones
-------------	------------------	-------------	-----------------	-------------	-------------	-------------

 + + =

 	 	hundreds	 	 	ones
-------------	-------------	-----------------	-------------	-------------	-------------

 + =

Two ten-blocks have been traded to the ones. Fill in the missing numbers.

---	---	---	--

 thousands + 2 + tens + ones = 4 267

 + 200 + + 27 = 4 267