

Rhythm & Rhyme in Poetry

Bingo

Bingo is a happy boy,
He loves to jump and play.
He chases down his flying toy,
Each time it's thrown away.
He loves playing in the sun,
And getting lots of pats.
It's always such a lot of fun,
And best of all? No cats!

Read the poem and answer the questions.

1. Circle each pair of rhyming words a different colour.
2. Count the number of beats in each line. Record the count beside each line.
3. Write another stanza that could fit into this poem.
Keep the same rhythm and rhyme pattern if you can!
