

Cause

...happens first

...tells WHY something happened

Effect

...happens after

...tells WHAT happened

Read each sentence.

Underline the cause green and the effect red.

1. It was sunny, so Rick put on a hat.
2. Mia stayed in class because she didn't finish her work.
3. It was Saturday, so we went to football training.
4. Wendy took photos to class because she went on a trip.
5. If the kids do their jobs, they get pocket money.
6. Mat left the door open, and the dog ran away.
7. If it is too hot, we put the fan on.
8. Jill had cake because it was her birthday.

Cause

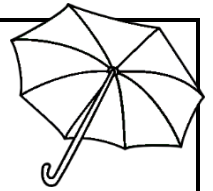

...happens first

...tells WHY something happened

Effect

...happens after

...tells WHAT happened

Answers

Read each sentence.

Underline the cause green and the effect red.

1. It was sunny, so Rick put on a hat.

cause

effect

2. Mia stayed in class because she didn't finish her work.

effect

cause

3. It was Saturday, so we went to football training.

cause

effect

4. Wendy took photos to class because she went on a trip.

effect

cause

5. If the kids do their jobs, they get pocket money.

cause

effect

6. Mat left the door open, and the dog ran away.

cause

effect

7. If it is too hot, we put the fan on.

cause

effect

8. Jill had cake because it was her birthday.

effect

cause