

TITLE

Orientation

Introduces the characters and the setting. It should catch the reader's attention.

Complication

The problem of the story is introduced. How does it affect the characters?

Resolution

The problem is solved. Writers often build tension before the solution is reached.

Ending

How does the story end?

Is there a message?

Do any of the characters change?

