

Identifying Rhyming Patterns

Write down each poem's rhyme pattern.

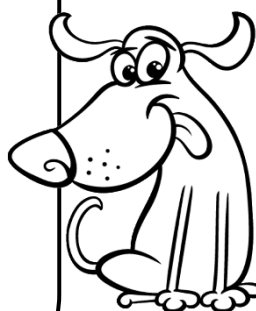

Dinner Time

My sister likes red jellybeans. —
I love hamburgers with cheese. —
My Dad will say, "Hot dogs, please." —
But Mum just gives us greens! —

Bingo

Bingo is a happy boy, —
He loves to jump and play. —
He chases his flying toy, —
Every time it's thrown away. —
He loves to play in the sun, —
Getting lots and lots of pats. —
It's always so much fun. —
And best of all? No cats! —

Drinks for Sale

Ben wanted to make some money, —
So he chose a day that was sunny. —
He hung a large sign on the wall, —
'Ben's Hot Drinks', was the name of his stall. —
A hot drink gone cold, —
Was the first thing that he sold. —
'This is terrible,' the buyer said. —
Ben replied, 'Perhaps a cold drink instead?' —
