

Visualise a Scene

Read the passage and build a picture in your mind.
Draw the picture with as much detail as you can.

Reaching her hand into the bucket, Abigail grabbed a handful of pellets. She stood on the little platform step and leaned carefully over the handrail. She slowly stretched out her arm and uncurled her fingers.

"That tickles!" Abigail laughed as the giraffe's long, rough tongue took the food from her hand.

"Gerald loves being fed," said a voice from behind her.