

Types of Sentences

Statements, Questions, Commands & Exclamations

Statements give information.

They express an idea. Statements end with a full stop •

Questions ask for information.

They are used to find out information. Questions end with a question mark. ?

Commands tell someone to do something.

They are used to give instructions. Commands end with a full stop •

Exclamations give information (just like statements).

They express strong emotion. Exclamations end with an exclamation mark. !

Write different types of sentences to match each picture.

Statement: _____

Question: _____

Command: _____

Exclamation: _____

Statement: _____

Question: _____

Command: _____

Exclamation: _____