Level 2

"I got it first!" Dee shouted. "No! I did!" said Don.

Dee and Don kept shouting. They felt mad at each other.

Don wanted to play with the new red toy truck and so did Dee.

"Work it out," said Mum. "Think, don't yell."

Don was still not happy but he said, "Okay, Dee. You have the truck now. I'll have my turn soon."

"That's fair," said Dee.

Dee played with the red truck. Don sat down and began to make a road and a bridge.

Dee was having fun. Don was having fun now, too.

"Can I take my truck on your road and over your bridge, Don?" asked Dee.

"Yes, you can," said Don.

Dee did that. "I like your road and bridge, Don. They are very good," said Dee.

"Now you can drive the truck on the road and over the bridge, Don," said Dee. "I will make a shed for the truck. It's your turn to play with the truck.

"That's good," said Don.

Dee and Don had fun together with the truck.
