The Playground

Dan, Tim and Sally were at the playground. There were lots of kids.

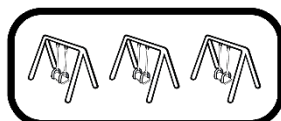

“This is what I like the best,” said Sally, and she ran to the swing.

Dan and Tim went to the slide. They went up the ladder. They waved to Sally. Sally was having fun! Dan went down the green slide. Then Tim went down the green slide. They were having fun, too!

Dan and Tim went up the ladder again. They went down the slide again. At the bottom, Dan saw a big spider. “I don’t want to go on the slide anymore,” said Dan. Dan and Tim went to the swings to play with Sally.

They played and played and played. Tim saw that it was getting dark. The sun was going down and down.

“We should go home,” said Dan.
