

Level 4

Dragon's Lair

This week has seen the release of the new video game, Dragon's Lair. There has been a lot of hype about this game. Was the hype justified, or is the game a bust? This review will help you decide whether or not it's worth your money.

It has a single player mode as well as online multiplayer. The online multiplayer is a blast and will keep you occupied long after you've beaten the single player.

Dragon's Lair is a game set hundreds of years in the past. You take on the role of a fearless knight who explores castles, deserted towns and graveyards to rescue princesses and stop the evil Lord Drimmond. The game tells a fascinating story that will keep you glued to the screen. The twist in the end is shocking!

The game looks beautiful which makes it easy to get lost in the game's world, Hydle Town. The graphics are so good they almost look like real life. It really feels like you are a brave knight exploring real locations from the past. This can be quite scary at times! The music has been created by the famous composer, Lynda Penny. Her music fits the game perfectly.

Dragon's Lair is a long game. There are 42 levels in total. As well as fighting, most of the levels involve very clever puzzles which are great fun to solve. Overall, the levels are really fun to play through, even though they are a bit too easy at times. My personal favourite level is Desert Danger.

Dragon's Lair is a wonderful game that needs to be in everyone's collection. It is available to download for the cheap price of $34.95!

Task A: Comprehension

1. When was Dragon's Lair released?

---

2. Who created the game's music?

---

3. Which sentence tells us lots of people have been excited for the game?

---

4. Which word from the text means 'busy'?

---

5. List 3 facts from the text.

---

---

---

6. List 3 opinions from the text.

---

---

---

7. One level is called 'Desert Danger'. Predict the name of 4 other levels from the game. Use information from the article to help guide you.

---

---

---

Task B: Language and Grammar

1. Choose conjunctions from the box to join the simple sentences below.

a. The puzzles are fun. They are easy.

_____

and	so	but because	although

b. Dragon's Lair has fantastic graphics. Its music is beautiful.

_____

c. I won't spoil the ending. I don't want to ruin the surprise.

_____

d. The game is great value. You should buy it today!

_____

2. Proper nouns need capital letters. For example, 'video game' doesn't need a capital, but 'Dragon's Lair' does.

Find 4 proper nouns from the text and write them below. Remember to use capitals.

Dragon's Lair _____

Task C: Challenge

Write a review of your favourite video game, movie or book.