

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are like glue. They connect ideas.

Find the conjunctions in the sentences. Circle.

1. It was windy, so I took my kite to the park.
2. Max went to bed because he was tired.
3. The homework was hard, so the boy asked his dad for help.
4. The teacher opened the door, then let the class in.
5. It was a hot day, so we went to the pool.
6. I got my pocket money because I did my jobs.
7. I ate my dinner but was still hungry.
8. We are making toast and eggs for dinner.
9. The egg fell off the table and dropped to the floor.
10. Fran likes apples, but Tony likes oranges.

Use each conjunction in a sentence of your own.

1. (and) _____

2. (but) _____

3. (so) _____

Conjunctions Answers

Conjunctions are like glue. They connect ideas.

Find the conjunctions in the sentences. Circle.

1. It was windy, so I took my kite to the park.
2. Max went to bed because he was tired.
3. The homework was hard, so the boy asked his dad for help.
4. The teacher opened the door, then let the class in.
5. It was a hot day, so we went to the pool.
6. I got my pocket money because I did my jobs.
7. I ate my dinner but was still hungry.
8. We are making toast and eggs for dinner.
9. The egg fell off the table and dropped to the floor.
10. Fran likes apples, but Tony likes oranges.

Use each conjunction in a sentence of your own. Answers will vary.

4. (and) _____

5. (but) _____

6. (so) _____