

Conjunctions

Conjunctions are like glue. They connect ideas.

Choose a conjunction to join each sentence pair.
Rewrite the sentence.

1. They played games. They ate cake.

and so

2. He was hungry. He made himself lunch.

when so

3. The grass was wet. It rained last night.

because so

4. She has a pet cat. She likes dogs better.

and but

5. Do you want to go? Do you to stay?

or then

6. It is late. I am tired.

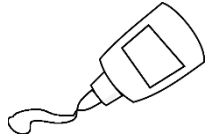

if and

7. She hurt her leg. She sat down.

so but

8. I want to see the movie. It is on too late.

and but

Conjunctions Answers

Conjunctions are like glue. They connect ideas.

Choose a conjunction to join each sentence pair.
Rewrite the sentence.

1. They played games. They ate cake.

and so

They played games, and they ate cake.

2. He was hungry. He made himself lunch.

when so

He was hungry, so he made himself lunch.

3. The grass was wet. It rained last night.

because so

The grass was wet because it rained last night.

4. She has a pet cat. She likes dogs better.

and but

She has a pet cat, but she likes dogs better.

5. Do you want to go? Do you to stay?

or then

Do you want to go or stay?

6. It is late. I am tired.

if and

It is late and I am tired.

7. She hurt her leg. She sat down.

so but

She hurt her leg, so she sat down.

8. I want to see the movie. It is on too late.

and but

I want to see the movie, but it is on too late.