

Using Conjunctions (1)

Use the conjunctions provided to turn simple sentences into compound sentences.

but

The ball rolled onto the road.

The ball rolled onto the road but...

so

The ball rolled onto the road so...

because

The ball rolled onto the road because...

but

Dover barked at the door.

so

because

but

Kevin wanted to go to the park.

so

because

Using Conjunctions (2)

Use the conjunctions provided to turn simple sentences into compound sentences.

but

She studied hard for the test.

She studied hard for the test but...

so

She studied hard for the test so...

because

She studied hard for the test because...

but

They went to the movies.

so

because

but

He loves playing soccer.

so

because

